

ATHENS: ANCIENT CULTURE AND MODERN CITY

GREECE

New Program:
Under Development

CULTURE | CLASSICS | POLITICS | HISTORY | RELIGION | INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

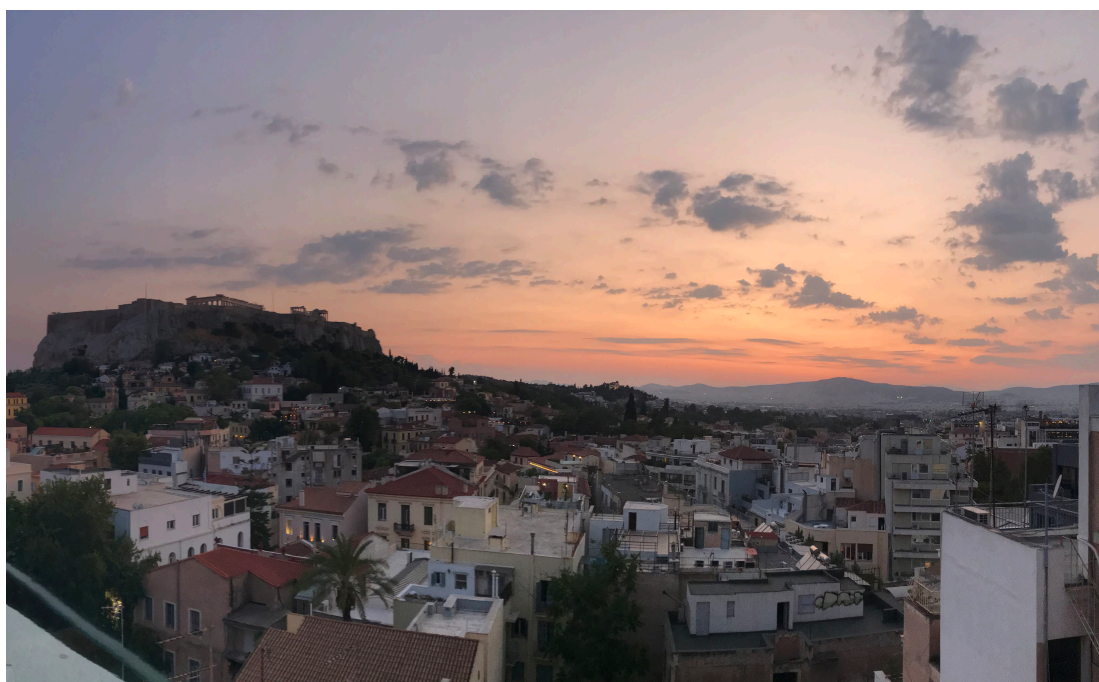

LOCATION: Athens

TERM: Summer Quarter (4 weeks)

CREDITS: 2 units

APPLICATION DEADLINE: February 10

\ SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE \

COURSE TOPICS:

- Ancient life & religion, including mythology
- Modern Greece and its relationship to its past

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION:

Experience Greece through the archaeology of the ancient world and the cityscape of the modern. Study ancient life and culture as well as the complex relationship between Greek past and present, from independence to the economic and refugee crises.

Northwestern

GLOBAL LEARNING

northwestern.edu/abroad
global@northwestern.edu

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Ryan Platte, Program Director: ryan.platte@northwestern.edu

Catrina DeBord, GLO Adviser: catrina.debord@northwestern.edu